Manuel Bronstein, Roblox's chief product officer, says that the company's journey began at the turn of the 1990s, when eventual co-founders David Baszucki and Erik Cassel developed the 2D Interactive Physics and the 3D CAD software Working Model. These were "simulated physics laboratories" which allowed users to design environments they could experiment within – by constructing destructible houses, for instance, or crashing two cars together at various speeds, or maybe by taking the tools in altogether weirder and more unexpected directions.

Their goal is to take your account name and password, then take over your account so you no longer have access. This includes taking all of your items, as well as any Robux you have accumulated. Roblox themselves urges anyone who encounters one of these to report it to their team through their Report Abuse System.

And it's not just amateurs making Roblox games — there are entire studios dedicated to Roblox. I spoke with one, The Gang Stockholm, while writing this article, and they've now built an official Nerf battle arena game for toymaker Hasbro. One of Roblox's top games, Adopt Me, grew from a two-person development team to being supported by a full development studio that has ambitions to hire 100 developers by the end of next year.

Once you create your game, you can use a Premium Purchase Modal to encourage players to upgrade to a membership, or even to a higher membership. It will show up as a pop-up box on their screen as they enter an area that is only for premium members, which is a great addition to story games.

There are two primary ways to get Robux without spending money directly on Robux. Creating and selling custom items, like wearable clothes, is one way to go about this. While free-to-play players can create custom clothes for their own use, premium players can sell these designs to others for Robux.

Many players claim there is one free way to earn Robux and it is through a Robux Generator. However, these don't actually exist and can do more harm than good. They claim they generate you free Robux, but in reality, they are just a scam.

You've finally given in and decided to buy your kid some Robux but where do you buy them? There are a few options here and I wouldn't try any other way. There are lots of scams out there (more on this later) claiming to be giving away Robux for free, ignore these and follow the different methods below.
